

ELECTION ECHOES.

Warwick Will Succeed Congressman McKinley.

HE HAS A MAJORITY OF 220.

Official Returns All In Except Two Precincts In Stark County, and They Have Been Promptly Returned—Returns from Other Places.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—The latest election returns received from the McKinley district indicate that John G. Warwick has been elected by a small majority over Congressman McKinley. All but two precincts in Stark county give McKinley a majority of 700. Holmes gives 1890 and Wayne 375 for Warwick, and Medina 1374 for McKinley from Wayne. Holmes and Medina counties and complete unofficial returns from Stark county, Warwick's majority over McKinley is 220.

The Republican state committee still claim the election of Poorman, Republican, in the Seventeenth district.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 7.—Gen. Palmer received a telegram from Carthage saying that Edwards and Myers, two Democrats, are shown by the official count, to have been elected to the legislature. Gen. Palmer on reading this dispatch, said: "This makes 107 Democrats on joint ballot a majority of 13. The general explained, including the F. M. E. A. men, all three of whom he claimed, are pledged to his support on the ballot for United States senator."

Chairman Jones of the Republican state central committee, concedes the legislature to the Democrats, but claims the election of the Republican state ticket by majorities from 6,000 to 8,000. The Democratic state central committee is unwilling to concede the claims of Mr. Jones in regard to the state ticket so long as returns come in from southern Illinois counties, showing heavy Democratic gains. Official returns from twenty-seven counties out of 102 in the state show a net gain of over 10,000 for the Democratic state ticket.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Sixty-six counties, according to the returns, give Merriam, Republican, for governor, 74,969 votes; Wilson, Democrat, 70,243; and Owen, Alliance, 48,244; Merriam's plurality, 3,826. Fifteen counties are yet to be heard from. Castle, Democrat, is elected in the fourth congressional district by 3,939 plurality over Snyder, Republican. Lind, Republican, is elected over Baker, Democrat, in the second by 1,000 plurality. Harris, Democrat, has 1,237 plurality over Dannel, Republican, in the first district. In the third district O. M. Hall, Democrat, has a small majority over D. Shall, Republican. The fifth district is in doubt. The balance of the power in the legislature will probably be held by the Alliance.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The police returns give Frank Lawler, Democratic candidate for sheriff, a majority of 2,536 in the city. The county towns give Gilbert, Republican, a majority of 3,294. If the police returns are correct, Gilbert is elected sheriff by a majority of 738. The Republicans also elect the county clerk, a superior court judge and the superintendent of schools. The Democrats elected the treasurer, the appellate court clerk, the probate court clerk, the criminal court clerk, the county judge and a superior court judge. The Republicans have a majority of commissioners which was last year controlled by the Republicans.

DETROIT, Mich., Nov. 7.—The whole Democratic state ticket is believed to be elected by from 8,000 to 15,000 plurality. The Democrats have also a majority in the legislature by about 3 majority in the senate and by some 15 in the house on fusion vote with the patrons of industry, who hold the balance of power. The first, second, fifth, sixth, seventh, eighth and tenth congressional districts have gone Democratic and the third, fourth, ninth and eleventh Republican. The vote in the eighth is very close, and may require the official count, but present returns give it to the Democrats by about 80 votes.

CONCORD, N. H., Nov. 7.—Returns from all but nine small towns give Tuttle, Republican, for governor, 40,856; Amesden, 40,090; Fletcher, Prohibitionist, 2,272. Republicans claim 10 to 12 majority in the house, and the Democrats claim from 2 to 16. Result will hinge upon the question of admission of members elected under the new census apportionment and "class towns" where population has decreased. A good deal depends upon the course taken by the Republican clerk of the last house, who makes up the roll.

KANSAS CITY, Nov. 7.—The returns received from Kansas do not change the situation materially as announced heretofore. The only positive change is the certain election of Broderick, Republican, over Moonlight, Democrat, in the first congressional district. This will make the Kansas delegation stand: Republicans two, Farmers' Alliance five.

The state ticket is still in doubt with chances favoring the Farmers' Alliance.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Nov. 7.—McFarland, Republican, has a plurality of 5,183 according to nearly complete unofficial returns. McFarland leads and the rest of the state ticket is therefore probably divided. Henderson, Republican, is elected to congress in the Third district by a majority of 272, and Fitch in the Eighth by a majority of 223. The delegation to congress will stand five Democrats and six Republicans.

Two Republicans in Kentucky. WINCHESTER, Ky., Nov. 7.—Returns from the mountain counties, in the Tenth district, elect Hill, Republican, to congress over Kendall, Democrat. The cause for this is general dissatisfaction in the Democratic party, because of the nomination of Kendall. This, with the Eleventh district Republican, makes two congressmen of that party in the state.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 7.—Unofficial returns from the fifteen counties in the Second congressional district give Breckinridge, Democrat, a vote of 5,184 and Langley, Republican, 4,662. Breckinridge's majority is 502 and any changes that may be made will be in his favor. The election of Cate in the First district is generally conceded. Arkansas will send a solid Democratic delegation to congress.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Half the townships in the state in their returns show an average Democratic gain of twenty to the township. This will make the state Democratic by about 20,000. The Democrats elect eleven out of thirteen congressmen. The legislature will be Democratic on joint ballot by 68.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 7.—The returns from 1,114 precincts in California, including 173 precincts in this city, give Markham, Republican, for governor, 10,134 plurality. This constitutes the returns from more than one-half the precincts of the state.

OMAHA, Nov. 7.—Boyd, Democrat, is elected governor by 4,000 to 5,000 plurality. Most of the Republican state ticket before the governor is elected. The Farmers' Alliance have the legislature and two congressmen and most of the county offices.

THE NEXT CONGRESS. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The morning papers' estimate of the complexion of the next house vary considerably. The Times estimates the majority of the Democrats at 151. The Herald makes it 121. The World 141, The Sun 154, and The Tribune 60.

MINNEAPOLIS, Nov. 7.—Latest returns from South Dakota show that the result is an Alliance victory and that Loucks has been elected governor. The legislature will also be Alliance, thus insuring the defeat of Senator Moody.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—Judging from the latest returns Senator Farwell says he will not be the next senator from Illinois, but that John M. Palmer will succeed to those honors.

THE WEATHER. Fair; cooler weather; southeasterly winds.

AN EX-MAYOR SHOT.

William W. Cottrell, of Cedar Keys, Florida.

KILLED IN MONTGOMERY, ALA.

He Was the Man Who Terrorized the Federal Officials at Cedar Keys, Florida, and Caused a Gunboat to Be Sent to That Place About One Year Ago.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Nov. 7.—Ex-Mayor Cottrell, of Cedar Keys, Fla., who, sometime ago, terrorized the Florida Federal officials and escaped to Alabama, a fugitive from justice, was shot in the head and instantly killed at 11 o'clock yesterday by Chief of Police Gerald, of this city.

The shooting occurred in front of the office of the chief of police. Cottrell was shot twice with a double-barreled shotgun, one load taking effect in his body and the other through the face, entering through the eye, tearing the eye ball out. Cottrell had been in the city several days and was drinking. Wednesday night he was arrested on the charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was afterwards released, but left police headquarters indignant and vowing vengeance against the police, and particularly Gerald.

Gerald's friends went to him yesterday morning and told him Cottrell was looking for him, and cautioned him not to go on the streets as they feared a meeting between the two. Gerald remained in his office, and some time during the morning received a challenge from Cottrell to fight a duel. The chief paid no attention to the challenge, but remained at the office until Cottrell, accompanied by a friend, rode up to police headquarters at 11 o'clock, when the shooting occurred.

The crowd soon gathered around his form as it lay in front of the police office. His feet and body lay upon the sidewalk, while his head and shoulders lay upon the platform of the city scales. The first shot passed through his body and the second through the face, either of which would have proved fatal. He was still gasping when the crowds began gathering. His right hand pocket was turned half outside, indicating that he had his head in his pocket when he approached the chief of police. A gold headed cane lay by his side. He gasped for probably ten or fifteen minutes after he was shot.

Chief Gerald, soon after the shooting, entered his office, and passing out of the rear door, got in a buggy and was driven to the sheriff's office, where he gave himself up.

A coroner's jury of inquest was empaneled to investigate the killing, and gave a verdict in accordance with the above facts.

Cottrell was probably one of the most widely known men in the country. He created a sensation about a year ago at Cedar Keys, Fla., by terrorizing Federal custom house officials and the citizens of that place.

He fled from there to Lowndes county in this state, where he had many relatives and friends. He was one of the best families in Alabama, and when sober was regarded as an excellent citizen, but when under the influence of drink was reckless and desperate. He was married eight months ago to a daughter of Congressman Henderson, of North Carolina.

Capt. A. Gerald, his slayer, is one of the best known men in this city, where he has practically spent all his life. He has been chief of police of Montgomery for the past ten or twelve years.

MURDER ON A TRAIN.

A Defeated Candidate Resorts to a Gun to Get Revenge.

SEDALIA, Mo., Nov. 7.—Col. Thomas B. Price, president of The Gazette Printing company, of this city, was shot and mortally wounded yesterday afternoon by Judge John Higgins, of Pitt county court, while en route to their respective homes on a Missouri Pacific train. Higgins was a candidate for re-nomination on the Democratic ticket as judge of the county court, and was opposed by Price. Higgins was defeated, and since then he has entertained a bitter feeling against Price.

Exactly what led to the trouble is not known, but Price received an abdominal wound which is almost certain to result fatally. Higgins surrendered to the authorities at Houstonia, and last night Sheriff Smith received a telegram to come after the prisoner at once, as fears of lynching were entertained.

TICKETS IN 1892.

Gen. George A. Sheridan Selects Candidates for the Next Campaign.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Gen. George A. Sheridan, the Republican orator, in an interview published here says that Pattison's election as governor of Pennsylvania makes him a distinct presidential possibility. "I think indeed," said Gen. Sheridan, "that he will be the nominee of his party, and that the ticket will read 'Pattison and Hill.' Think of Pattison's wonderful record, twice city comptroller of Philadelphia, once mayor, and twice governor. Is there anything to keep such a man from heading his ticket?"

What will the other ticket be? Maj. McKinley will be elected governor of Ohio in 1892 by an immense majority, and no body else will be thought of for the first place, and so the ticket will read, "McKinley and Reed." There you are—Pattison and Hill, McKinley and Reed.

TOWN ON FIRE.

Owensboro, Ky., Being Swept By a Conflagration—Other Fires.

OWENSBORO, Ky., Nov. 7.—A fire started about midnight in the basement of the Rudd house which was totally destroyed. The fire then rapidly spread to The Messenger newspaper and job office A. J. Wodley's fine store building and D. A. Evans' livery stable. It is unknown at this hour where it will stop. All the hose of the fire department has burst and the fire department is perfectly helpless.

Telegrams have been sent to Evansville and Henderson asking for assistance. William H. Hahn jumped from the third story window of the Rudd house and is fatally injured. There is a strong wind and the hopes of saving any business portions of the town are small.

Big Fire in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—Fire last night destroyed the Philadelphia Co-operative company's building, 967 to 971 Otsego street, the three story building adjoining, occupied by P. C. Thompson as a soap factory on Swanson street, also a building used as a spice mill, by Mr. Thompson. The storage ware house corner Swanson street and Washington avenue, owned by the Pennsylvania Railroad company, was burned with its contents. The Snowden hotel, adjoining the ware house, was badly scorched, and a number of dwelling houses, owned by Mr. Thompson, were damaged by fire and water. Total loss $185,000, covered by insurance.

The Buffalo Blaze.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 7.—The fire in the elevator district was confined to the C. J. Wells grain elevator, together with 350,000 bushels of grain, an adjoining malt house, with its contents, a train of freight cars on a side track in close proximity and several warehouses. A fireman was badly hurt by a flying piece of corrugated iron sheeting, and several persons had narrow escapes, but no one was killed. The total loss will probably reach $500,000.

BIG BLAZE IN DENVER.

Starts in a Lumber Yard and Spreading Does $100,000 Damage.

DENVER, Nov. 7.—Fire started in the rear of M. I. Todd's lumber yard on Ninth and Larimer streets, at 11 o'clock, Wednesday night, and notwithstanding the efforts of the fire department, which was promptly on hand, the flames had spread nearly all over the yard before the water could be turned on. The flames quickly passed to the St. Elmo hotel, Meyer's liquor company and O'Leary's drug store, while a number of small residences just across the alley were given up to the flames.

The entire block between Ninth and Tenth streets and Larimer and Market was destroyed. One unknown man was burned to death in the hotel. It was reported that another man and two children were caught in the same building and burned to death. The truth of this rumor will not be known until the inmates of the hotel are accounted for. The cause of the fire is not known. The loss could not be estimated Wednesday night, but will probably be over $100,000.

AT TRUCKEE, CAL.

Business Portion of the Town Destroyed.

TRUCKEE, Cal., Nov. 7.—A most disastrous fire broke out here shortly after midnight Wednesday night, and, as the wind was blowing a hurricane, the flames were soon beyond control.

The fire was started in the rear of Stoll's brewery by a man who was seen running away from the place soon after the flames broke out. The brewery and a half dozen other buildings were soon burning.

Citizens fought the flames with great determination; a fire train from Summit gave assistance, but the efforts were of no avail. East Main street was in ashes, and all its frame buildings on Front street were burning. Nearly forty buildings, including the business portion of the town, had been destroyed by 2 o'clock Thursday morning, and the residence portion also seemed doomed. A light snow was falling, but it had no effect on the flames.

Collision of Passenger Trains.

TRENTON, N. J., Nov. 7.—Engineer William Lewis and Fireman George Bane, of the New York through express, had their arms and legs broken and were otherwise injured in a collision of two passenger trains on the Pennsylvania this morning. The passengers of both trains were badly shaken up but not injured. The cause was a freight train which broke in two and while the local passenger was assisting in the repairs, the express dashed into it.

Accident at a Bonfire.

GREENFIELD, Mass., Nov. 7.—While the celebration in honor of the election of Russell as governor was in progress at Miller's Falls, last night, a spark from a bonfire landed in a bowl of powder, near which were men engaged in loading a cannon. The powder exploded, fatally burning Harry Robinson, of Windsor, Vt., and seriously injuring John A. Griffin and Andrew Kirtle, of Miller's Falls.

Cornerstone Laid.

CHICAGO, Nov. 7.—The cornerstone of the magnificent temple to be erected at the corner of Randolph and State streets, was laid yesterday afternoon by Grand Master John M. Davis, with the solemn and impressive ceremonies of the Masonic order. The ceremony of laying the cornerstone was preceded by a parade of local lodges in which 5,000 men participated. The temple when completed will be twenty stories high, and will be the largest building of the kind in the world.

OHIO STATE NEWS.

THE PENITENTIARY BOARD.

Reports Barred from Their Meetings, but Their Transactions Reach the Public Just the Same—Paroles Granted, Other State Dispatches.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 7.—There was a lively time at the meeting of the penitentiary board yesterday over the question of the admission of reporters. Saved by a Dog.

SPRINGFIELD, O., Nov. 7.—John Sher-stadt, local sportsman, at the invitation of Daniel Baker, went out to hunt on the latter's farm. He had tramped around for sometime and when on a small knoll was astonished to find ground beneath him sinking. He did not have time to regain solid ground and fell about eighteen feet, when he struck the bottom of the cave, about fifteen by twenty feet. He howled for help until exhausted and spent the day in his prison. A passing dog heard his cries, finally, and by his strange demonstrations got neighbors out and the man was rescued.

A Fighting Doctor.

ASHLAND, O., Nov. 7.—County infirmary director Christ Boyd and Dr. D. S. Samsell Jr., became engaged in a warm conversation concerning the management of the county infirmary. The conversation was abruptly ended by Dr. Samsell striking Mr. Boyd on the head several times with a heavy cane. The blows felled Boyd and broke the cane. Samsell voluntarily pleaded guilty before the grand jury to assault and battery, but Boyd swore out a warrant before Justice Jones for assault with intent to kill.

BASE BALL MEETING.

Leaders of the Players' League Preparing for Next Season.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 7.—In the parlors of the Continental hotel yesterday afternoon a meeting of the leaders of the Players' League of base ball men was held for the purpose of adopting some plan by which the organization may be continued on a profitable basis. At the outset it was claimed that the three associations cannot thrive or hope for success. Money has been lost almost everywhere, and in many instances it happened that dates conflicted, so that with three clubs playing at a time, neither had enough spectators to pay expenses.

The chief idea of the present congress is to do away with the three-club plan, and have only two clubs for each city, with one for Brooklyn, because of its proximity to New York. To do this is necessary for the Players' League players to consolidate with the others, and so keep intact two organizations. The backers or capitalists have talked the matter over, and although they have not agreed upon any definite plan of action, it is certain they will oppose the arrangement that prevailed last summer. In this situation the members of the Players' League naturally want to know what chance they have of "getting into the swing," or of organizing on their own behalf. It is understood that Capt. John M. Ward, of the Brooklyn Players' League club, would take his men to another city or unite with New York. But Brooklyn would not be needed, with Buffalo there are eight clubs in the League. So this meeting is to see what can be done in the matter.

Really reduced to a plain proposition it is whether the Players' League is to live or die, or whether the National League shall swallow it up.

The present movement was arranged by Messrs. Prince and Hart, of the Boston Players' League club, and the Wagner brothers, of the Philadelphia Players' League club, together with other members of the Brotherhood.

The plan most favored at the adoption of a resolution calling upon the backers, both players and capitalists, or leaders, of New York and other cities, to guarantee the formation of a syndicate for the purchase or signing of players of the New York League club, and if the Brooklyn backers should consider this favorably, to form a consolidation.

Among those present at the convention were Capt. John M. Ward, of New York; the Wagner brothers, of the Philadelphia club; Charles Hart, Ira B. Kirkland, John Prince and Arthur R. Egan, of the Boston club; Henry B. Rea and Ed. Harlow, of the Pittsburgh club; Mr. Sharsig, manager of the Athletic club, and Charles Mason, one of the former managers; Editor Francis Richter, of The Sporting Life, and Mr. Francis Brunell, who started the movement and is secretary. The New York-Brooklyn clubs are represented by proxies. The meeting was held with closed doors. The conference adjourned at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, and although no resolution was passed, it was agreed that a Players' League shall be organized for next year. The plan will be perfected at a meeting to be held next Tuesday at Pittsburgh.

STANLEY ARRIVES.

He is Cordially Welcomed to America by Many of His Friends.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The White Star steamship Tonic, having on board Henry M. Stanley, with his wife and mother-in-law, his wife's cousin, Hamilton Aide, and Lieut. Jephson, arrived in quarantine at 11:45 Wednesday night, after an exceedingly rough passage of over seven days' duration.

Soon after sunrise yesterday morning a party of personal friends of Mr. Stanley, headed by Col. Finley Anderson, boarded the Tonic at quarantine to welcome the great explorer. Mr. Stanley stood on the hurricane deck with his wife, to whom he afterward presented each member of the party. The meeting was very cordial, and when Mr. Stanley grasped the hand of his friend, Col. Anderson, said:

"Mr. Stanley, we are glad to greet you once again. As it was my duty, as The Herald representative in London at the time, to give you your first commission to enter Africa, so it is now my privilege and pleasure in the name of all your friends, in this country and on this continent, to welcome you back for the third time from the shades of death in the dark continent, crowned with the laurels of your own achievements, and the greatest of hero travelers and the most illustrious of living men. Mr. Stanley's face beamed with evident satisfaction as he replied: "Col. Anderson, I thank you from my heart for your kind welcome to my home. This is a far different day from the one, twenty-three years ago, when I sailed away from the harbor of New York to report to you in London. I am delighted to return, as you say for the third time, if only for a visit, to a land and people to whose influence and hospitality I am so deeply indebted."

"Although I have been absent so long, I am a citizen of the United States, you know, and I am glad to feel that this is my country. But I must go and come whenever and wherever duty calls me, and here I am again back from the gloom of a country that was much unknown to one that is the light of the world."

It is expected to establish a local advisory board in Marion, that business may be transacted here. The Detroit concern bears credentials of a high order.

At 8 o'clock Thursday evening the jury in the case of M. B. Chase, administrator, against Bryan Maloney, returned a verdict in favor of defendant. Defendant had been security on a note for one Lyons, and as indemnity had taken a kiln of tile, which he claims did not repay him, and which plaintiff alleged more than paid. The jury at first returned a verdict for $105, but nothing was asked, and was sent out again by the court.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Beale was defeated by 206 votes. This is not a bad showing, and we doubt if Mr. Beale is the least gratified of the two candidates.

Foster's defeat is attributable mainly to the apathetic republicans of Union county. It seems Union county was destined to play an important part in the congressional election from the start.

The Mansfield News gives excellent advice to the citizens of that place when it says: "Now election is over let all give strict attention to advancing Mansfield's interests." And how applicable to Marion.

Marion county gave Hare over Foster 536, Wyandot 708, Seneca 550. In Hancock Foster's majority was 588, in Union 1125. It does not require much arithmetic to figure Mr. Hare's total majority at 141.

Marion county prohibitionists had an opportunity to distinguish themselves by voting for Beale and thus putting themselves under obligations to the republicans as a party. But they didn't do it and are as much in disfavor as before.

The Star has a straight tip that more boodle was sent here in the interest of Hare during the last week of the campaign than Foster furnished the republicans during the entire canvass. There is no doubt but this saved Mr. Hare's majority being cut down to considerable less.

The town has been billed for the democratic jollification at Upper Sandusky, Saturday evening, November 8, Campbell, Brice and Norton are among the prominent democrats advertised to be present. It seems fitting that Brice and Norton should meet to jollify at the home of their candidate. But will Marion democrats rush up to see and hear the Seneca statesman who knocked them out so effectually at the Carey convention?

James Owen is not mending any at this writing. Prof. Ullom closed his full term of school Thursday and the little ones will have two weeks vacation before the winter term begins.

SUICIDING BY STARVATION. A Rather Romantic Love Story With a Sad Sequel.

BOSTON, Nov. 7.—A young Polish woman is dying in Boston on account of faithlessness of her lover. For two weeks past she has refused to take nourishment. She says she is determined to starve herself to death. She is Evelina Rinciswicz. When she came from Poland two years ago, she had just turned 20 years. She found employment at several places. Her father was a farmer, and she was raised in Poland.

One day a young man rode out from Warsaw and met Evelina. This had been prearranged by the parents. His father was a wool dealer and hers a wool grower. They were friends, and fixed up a scheme to unite the families. The young people were agreeable. Their course of true love ran smoothly until three years ago. Then the lover decided to try his fortune in America. He settled in a little town in Illinois and began to study medicine, working in a store a part of the year to secure enough money to pay for his education, his father sending more or less, as the condition of his business warranted.

A year after her lover left Warsaw Evelina decided to leave too. She longed to see him, and the only way she could do so was to come to Boston, where some of her father's friends were, and secure work, as her parents were unable to support her away from them. She had rather a vague idea of distances in the United States. At any rate she would be nearer her lover than if she stayed in Warsaw. So she came, and for two years she lived in the hope that someday they would be married. The couple corresponded constantly. Last June she received a final letter from Illinois. When she read it in the dining room she fell to the floor in a dead faint.

The letter was the deathblow to the young woman's hopes. For six weeks the girl kept at work, although her friends could see that she was gradually pining away. Then she gave up and was compelled to take to her bed, where night after night she prayed that death might release her from her sufferings.

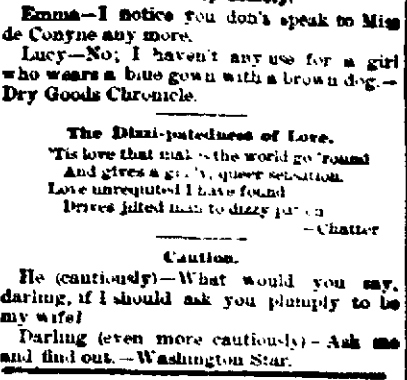

The release did not come, however, and two weeks ago she announced to her attendant that she was going to starve herself to death. Since then her physician has been unable to induce her to take food, and slowly her life is ebbing away.

Train Goes Through a Bridge. SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 7.—At an early hour Wednesday morning a northbound freight train on the International and Great Northern railroad fell through a bridge across Conal river near New Braunfels. The first span of the structure gave way and the engine and three loaded cars were precipitated to the water below, a distance of fifty feet. Engineer Halley and Fireman Jones were so badly hurt that they will die.

Highway Engineering. A movement in favor of good roads, such as are seen in other countries, has commenced in the east, and it is hoped that it will extend throughout the entire country. Col. Albert A. Pope, of Boston, has endowed a professorship of highway engineering in the Massachusetts institute of technology. A new department is to be organized in that institution to fit young men to construct and keep in proper repair the roads of the country. Instruction will also be given in grading, draining and paving streets in cities and villages and in making sidewalks.

In most of our school instruction is given in a great many useless, or at least impractical, things. The graduates from many of our higher institutions of learning are not prepared to earn a living or in a condition to be of much advantage to the world. A knowledge of highway engineering promises to be productive of much good. Every township in the country needs the services of a highway engineer. This office should be created as soon as there are men competent to fill it.—Chicago Herald.
